International Convention Chair, Global Service Team Coordinator, PDG from Indiana are a few of the titles of Rich Davis who is also a member of the Meridian Lions Club. Rich has been a Lion since 1982. He brought the proposal of having a service coordinator at the club level to have the responsibility of reporting projects to LCI instead of putting the burden on the club Secretary. This position should be filled and reported to him and LCI by July 1st. The person will be a voting member of the Board of Directors and will have a one year term. He indicated several clubs never report their projects to LCI. It can be reported monthly or quarterly. Upcoming President Larry Kidd will take care of the responsibility of choosing a coordinator or leaving it with the secretary who reports projects monthly.

Twenty seven members and two guests came to enjoy the program. Louie Pfleger was accompanied by his daughter Louise and Claudio Negrao visited for the third time and filled out a membership application. Liz Cardinal won the attendance money and the card money is still waiting to fill someones wallet.

Gary D'Orazio presented Louie Pfleger with an International Certificate of Appreciation for his service and President Dan Frison presented Louie with a 100 year award for growth in membership.

Patty Frison reported that Darlene Storck, Dennis and Lynne Burks worked at the Sprouts on May 26 and helped with a scavenger hunt. Volunteer hours – 15. Happy Olsen reported collecting 248 pair used eyeglasses.

Dan Frison requested membership to ask everyone that is a golfer to join Hit the Jackpot Golf Tournament and to search for sponsors and gifts to help make the tournament a success.

Braggers: Larry Kidd said son Austin golfed in the Scentsy Golf Tournament, finished 2 under and was closest to the pin and won a putter. Gary D'Orazio said his twin grandsons have been accepted at George Washington and Boston College.

Jan Shelton passed around a sign up sheet for the Gooding School Picnic – June 21st – and if you want to participate by bringing home cooked food, contact Jan at 208-323-1727.
