What is Pet Peace of Mind?  For many in hospice care, a decline in physical conditions impacts a patient's ability to have a relationship with the family pet. Pets often fill the relational void as they offer unconditional love and companionship when it is needed most. Pet Peace of Mind enables patients to keep their pets at home throughout their end-of-life journeys. Local hospice partners provide pet food, veterinary care, and other pet-care needs at no cost to patients. If the pet already has a veterinarian, the pet would remain under his or her care. The program helps St. Luke's hospice patients keep their pets in their final days, make sure the pets are healthy and finds them a new home when needed. The program runs on donations and the labor of 15 volunteers. Karen Jeffries, Hospice Volunteer Coordinator specializing in adoptions of pets, presented a heartfelt program that had some of us tearing up.

We had 25 members and two guests this week. Michelle was with Louie Pfleger and Gary and Linda D'Orazio brought Sunday Thabach, who received a $1000 Scholarship from the Club. Gary also presented a Certificate of Appreciation to Larry Locklear. Darleen & Gary did a bit of bragging. (for only a buck why not?) Sharon LoSasso won the attendance money and, who won the card money – you guessed it – Sam Storck!

Liz Cardinale said Feed the Vets will be June 20th at 4:30. She and Henry will be on vacation that day. Darlene Storck said June 26th is volunteer at the Idaho Food Bank and she said they are asking for as many helpers as possible, so if you haven't volunteered before, now is a good time.

The Club will be handling an estate sale the week of the 25th of June, with actual sale dates June 29 & 30. More information for moving items from a storage to the Garage of Lavon and Jan Shelton will come at a later date. This will be a great fund raiser so I will be asking for help of all kinds. To volunteer contact Happy Olsen.

Darlene Storck, Ken Marchetti, M. J. Thompson and Patty Frison worked on Saturday the 2nd with the Sprouts to help learn how to make salads. Total volunteer hours 15.

Dan Frison requested membership to ask everyone that is a golfer to join Hit the Jackpot Golf Tournament and to search for sponsors and gifts to help make the tournament a success.
