James Earp is the bureau chief of the state run Veterans cemetery which was established in 2004. He encouraged everyone to visit the cemetery and consider adopting a grave site to visit once a year and leave flowers. The “Wreaths across America” is a very popular project. The groundbreaking has already happened in Buhl where they are building a rural veterans cemetery. There will be another state run veterans cemetery built in Blackfoot to serve all the surrounding communities. Veterans and spouses can share a burial spot, it doesn’t matter who predeceases who. Visit the cemetery or their website.

President Rob’s quote:

In honor of the upcoming Jackpot golf tournament:

Golf is a game where you yell “Fore”, shoot 6 and write down 5.

Paul Harvey

While playing golf today, I hit two good balls. I stepped on a rake.
